

Snails, dragon flies, bees, ants and a tadpole were hunted down and caught by the kids at the Hinsdale Humane Society's summer camp, who spent Tuesday morning at Mayslake in Oak Brook. Emily Barnard and Emily Venus used their nets to scoop up prey, while Catie Ganzel didn't hesitate to dig through the muck from the pond to find hers. (Jim Slonoff photos)

