

Families brought the pets to have their photos taken with Santa at Immanuel Hall. | STEVE JOHNSTON/
FOR PIONEER PRESS

Santa visits with four-legged friends

KIMBERLY FORNEK
kfornek@pioneerlocal.com

It's not clear whether Santa understood what each visitor wanted for Christmas, but the dogs and cats who stopped by Immanuel Hall Saturday to see Santa Claus left with a holiday photo.

The Hinsdale Humane Society arranged for family photos with Santa for two-legged and four-legged pets on leashes Nov. 29 at the historic building, on the corner of Grant and Third streets in Hinsdale.

White umbrellas, tripods and cameras created a studio setting for the photos, which families could then display at home or share with friends and relatives in their holiday cards.

Edible treats were available for pets and cookies and cocoa were served to the humans.

Sydney Matthews of Hinsdale tries to get her dog's, Ginger, attention at a photo session with Santa at Immanuel Hall. | STEVE

JOHNSTON/FOR PIONEER PRESS

Diana Do of Oak Brook checks out the photo that she had taken with her dog, Bambi, and Santa at Immanuel Hall. | STEVE JOHNSTON/
FOR PIONEER PRESS

